

Costantino Conigliaro

Died Age 34

Heroin & Cocaine

Hello, my name is Mandi. I would love to be there to share my story. I have been longing to share my story with so many people about the dangers of drug addiction that claimed the life of my husband, Costantino.

He passed away on October 19, 2004. I miss him everyday that my life goes on. He left me with a beautiful son (2 years old), who never even had the chance to know his father. In some ways, that might have been a blessing in disguise. He also left behind a beautiful daughter (my stepdaughter).

Born on November 17, 1969 and died on October 19, 2004 from a heroin/cocaine overdose, Costantino Conigliaro.

Words could not express the pain that I still feel.
