

Jarrett Grier

Heroin & Prescription Drugs

I lost my only child a wonderful son on June 9,2003 from an overdose of heroine and prescription drugs.

Jarrett was a college graduate who spoke 3 languages and was a rising star.

He was a bright and talented artist who lost his way trying to self medicate his way through clinical depression. My life has been forever changed as a result of this traumatic loss.

Joanettie E. Grier

Remembering Lost Promise